Notes:

This month we find out if AD Visionís big gamble is going to pay off: the first volume of Evangelion is debuting. This may well predict the short term future of anime product in the US; if it sells well, the industry is still quite healthy. If it doesnít, expect major changes in the way some companies market their product. LA Blue Girl finishes up this month, and it appears that CPM/A18 has several new adult titles in the wings ... this will offset the fact that ADV/SoftCel isnít releasing any truly adult product in the short term. AD Vision also brings out their first live action release this month and yes, that really is the price. CPM debuts their MD Geist II film, which they co-produced ... similar to what Manga did with Ghost in the Shell (which continues to sell like crazy). Pioneer also releases their big screen Tenchi Muyo movie this month (that features some high priced US voice talent), which should be a hit!

JEFF'S PICK OF THE MONTH

Evangelion is out, and while it doesnít end all that well the beginning is a series of barnburners. Wonderful stuff, but maybe not as mainstream as weíd like. Super Atragon is also way cool, the neatest piece of retro-design since Giant Robo, but many will think only of that so-so live action movie from a few years back. Iíd probably opt for the Tenchi Muyo Movie to be safe, with those other two as very strong secondary recommendations.
